You call to me and I come to drink your water.
I thirst for you, Savior of my soul.
I lift my heart and my voice in sweet praise of your name and the love that we share.

Love you freely give when we come to drink Your water,
creates life anew, life from you reborn.
Faithful and true I will be with your name on my lips as you watch over me.

Communion 3: Living Water (cont'd)

You call to me and I come to drink your water.
I thirst for you, Savior of my soul.
Trusting in you, I am free as you lead me to be all I can be.

creates life anew, life from you reborn.
You call to me and I come to drink your water.
I thirst for you, Savior of my soul.
Savior of my soul....Saviour of my soul.

1. As the deer pants for the water, so my soul longs after
You. You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship You.

Chorus:

You alone are my strength, my shield;
to You alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship You.

2. You're my friend and You are my brother even though You are a King. I love you more than any other, so much more than anything. Chorus

3. I want You more than gold or silver, only You can satisfy. You alone are the real joy giver and the apple of my eye. Chorus

Closing Hymn: Amazing Grace

CP #352

First Reading: Isaiah 55: 1-9

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you. Seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Psalm 63: 1-8 (said antiphonally)

Leader: O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you;

All: my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you, as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.

Leader: Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place,

All: that I might behold your power and your glory.

Leader: For your loving-kindness is better than life itself;

All: my lips shall give you praise.

Leader: So will I bless you as long as I live

All: and lift up my hands in your name;

Leader: My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness,

All: and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,

Leader: when I remember you upon my bed,

All: and meditate on you in the night watches.

Leader: For you have been my helper,

All: and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.

Leader: My soul clings to you;

All: your hand holds me fast.

All: Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word, and Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10: 1-13

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness. Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play." We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Gospel Reading: Luke 13: 31-35

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam - fell on them - do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did." Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"
